

Nature Photography Workshop

Learn the basics of nature photography at one of the most beautiful settings in Texas. The class will be led by Mike Murphy, former photo editor of Texas Highways magazine.

Topics to be covered include

The difference in what the eye sees and what the camera records

Mechanics and functions of a camera

Light and its role in photography

Photographic space and composition

Saturday, April 24

9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Both color and black-and-white photography will be discussed. Bring your own digital camera with a freshly charged battery and a 2 GB memory card.

Ages 12 and up: $15

Reservations Required

Call the Preserve at 830-825-3442 or email info@westcave.org to reserve your spot.

Westcave Preserve, located at 24814 Hamilton Pool Road in southwest Travis County, approximately 45 minutes from downtown Austin. For detailed directions, contact the Preserve at 830-825-3442 or visit www.westcave.org.