

Wildlife Tax Valuation Workshop

Hosted by the Cibolo Nature Center & Texas Parks and Wildlife

This program is especially for owners of less than 500 acres and will emphasize wildlife management for songbirds.

Learn about the history of the Wildlife Tax Valuation and requirements to qualify for this valuation.

Discover methods to creating healthy landscapes for wildlife that fulfill Tax Valuation requirements.

Many participants complete the seminar ready to submit an application for a Wildlife Tax Valuation.

Session I: WTV History, Overview and Property Inventory

with David K. Langford, Former Executive Vice President of Texas Wildlife Association

Saturday, January 14: 9am - 1pm

Summary of Wildlife Management Planning
Property Inventory: Assessing Ecosystems & Wildlife
Online Tools & Resources

Session II: Management Practices & Application Procedures

with Rancher Dusty Bruns

Saturday, January 21: 9am - 2:30pm

Stocking Level and Rotational Grazing
Habitat Control, Deer Management & Supplemental Shelter
Plant Diversity & Supplemental Food
Predator Control
Habitat Planning
Census for Birds

Session III: Current Law and Regulations

with A Representative From the Kendall Appraisal District

Saturday, January 28: 9am - 12:30pm

Review of Management Plans
Overview of Application Procedure
Questions & Answers

REGISTRATION REQUIRED
830-249-4616
WWW.CIBOLO.ORG

