

LEOPOLD CONSERVATION AWARD

2011 Call for Nominations

The Leopold Conservation Award, the top honor within the Lone Star Land Steward Awards program, recognizes landowners who exemplify the land ethic of Aldo Leopold, translating their love for the land into responsible stewardship and management. Texas' 2011 awardee receives an Aldo Leopold crystal and $10,000.

If you, or someone you know, is a former Lone Star Land Steward Award recipient for their ecoregion, we invite your nomination for the Leopold Conservation Award.

 Nomination deadline
November 30, 2010

To download a Nomination Form, visit www.leopoldconservationaward.org

Presented by Sand County Foundation in partnership with Texas Parks and Wildlife Department and Silver Eagle Distributors as part of the Lone Star Land Steward Awards Program

▲
2010 award recipient, Anderson Ranch
Photos © Chase Fountain, Texas Parks & Wildlife Department leopoldconservationaward.org