The Hill Country Alliance, along with our partners present two events kicking off 2010.

Texas Water Issues Symposium, "Climate Change and Impacts on Floods, Weather and Drought"

January 28th in Junction

This event is free and no registration is required. We thank our partners, Texas Tech University, Schreiner University and Texas Public Radio – Learn more here.

"Sustaining the Hill Country - Now and for Future Generations"

February 26th and 27th 2010 in Fredericksburg.

The forum kicks off with a reception honoring David Langford at Becker Vineyards in Fredericksburg and continues Saturday with full day of education and discussion. This event will help land owners, Hill Country residents and urban and rural conservationists better understand the history and dynamics of the region, as well as the choices and events that are irrevocably shaping its future.

Hosted by: the Bexar Audubon Society, Green Spaces Alliance of South Texas, the Hill Country Alliance, the Texas Wildlife Association, and the US Department of Agriculture Natural Resources Conservation.

Space is limited register today. Click here for program details, registration forms and sponsorship opportunities.
