Announcing the 2009 Hill Country Alliance Photo Contest

Get your cameras ready to capture the treasures of the Hill Country. It is time to enter your best photographs in our third annual photo contest.

This year's theme is Celebrating the Treasures of the Hill Country. What is it that you value? What makes the Hill Country valuable, a treasure to those of us who live here and to visitors just passing through? What treasures of the Hill Country do you want to preserve for your children to enjoy in the future?

The photo contest is free. A cash prize of $250 will be offered in each category. This year, the contest features four categories that explore the richness, the value, the treasures of the Hill Country:

- 1) Hill Country people: individuals, children and families
- 2) Working the land: gardening, agriculture, ranching, farming
- 3) Hill Country enterprise: wineries, tourism, festivals, towns
- 4) Natural treasures: springs, parks, rivers, special places in nature
