

Copyright and Trademark Takedown Policy

HCA respects intellectual property rights and expects users to do the same; if you believe content available through the Services infringes your copyright or trademark rights, please provide a written notice containing the information below, recognizing that knowingly submitting a false claim may subject you to liability.

Copyright (DMCA) notices. If you are a copyright owner or an authorized agent and believe content on the Services infringes your copyright, please send a written Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA) notice to HCA's Designated Agent identified below including: (i) your full name and role, postal address, telephone number, and email; (ii) identification of the copyrighted work claimed to be infringed (or a representative list for multiple works); (iii) identification of the material claimed to be infringing and information reasonably sufficient to permit us to locate it (for example, URL or description of location); (iv) a statement that you have a good-faith belief that use of the material in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law; (v) a statement that the information in your notice is accurate, and under penalty of perjury, that you are the copyright owner or authorized to act on the owner's behalf; and (vi) your physical or electronic signature.

DMCA notices should be mailed or emailed to:

Hill Country Alliance

P.O. Box 151675

Email: LAldredge@cokinoslaw.com | CC info@hillcountryalliance.org

Upon receipt of a compliant notice, HCA may remove or disable access to the material and may terminate repeat infringers in appropriate circumstances; where practicable, we will notify the user who posted the material.

Counter-notices. If your content has been removed or disabled due to a DMCA notice and you believe this was a mistake or misidentification, you may submit a written counter-notice to the Designated Agent including: (i) your full contact information; (ii) identification of the material that has been removed or to which access has been disabled and the location at which the material appeared before removal or disabling; (iii) a statement under penalty of perjury that you have a good-faith belief the material was removed or disabled as a result of mistake or misidentification; (iv) a statement that you consent to the jurisdiction of the federal district court for the judicial district in which your address is located, or if outside the United States, to the jurisdiction of any judicial district in which HCA may be found, and that you will accept service of process from the person who provided the original DMCA notice or that person's agent; and (v) your physical or electronic signature.

If we receive a valid counter-notice, we may restore the removed material in not less than 10 and not more than 14 business days after forwarding the counter-notice to the original complainant, unless the complainant informs us that they have filed a court action seeking to restrain the allegedly infringing activity.

Trademark complaints. If you believe content on the Services infringes your trademark rights, please send a written notice to the contact above including: (i) your full contact information and role; (ii) identification of the trademark, registration number (if applicable), jurisdiction, and the goods/services for which the mark is registered or used; (iii) a description of the material you believe is infringing and information sufficient to locate it on the Services; (iv) a statement describing why you believe the use is infringing, including how it is likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception; (v) a statement that the information in your notice is accurate and that you are the trademark owner or authorized to act; and (vi) your physical or electronic signature.

Repeat infringer policy; reservations. HCA may, in appropriate circumstances and in its discretion, terminate the accounts or access of users determined to be repeat infringers; we reserve the right to remove content alleged to infringe without prior notice and at any time in our discretion, and we may forward notices we receive (including contact details) to the user who posted the material or to third parties (for example, service providers or public repositories) as necessary to process the claim; nothing in this policy limits our ability to pursue other remedies available at law or in equity or to comply with applicable laws and lawful requests.
